

RETURN FORM

You can find complete details on the return policy in the Delivery and Return section of the Customer Service page.

You can return the purchased items up to 14 days upon receipt of your package. All items must be returned in their original package unused and undamaged, with this return form completed. Return costs are at your expense.

We reserve the right to refuse returns that are shipped out after the 14-day period or shipped out without the return form, as well as items that are not in the same condition as received.

Once the return is accepted and validated, we will reimburse the Customer the full amount paid for the order, to the Customer's bank account used for the payment of the item(s), as soon as possible and no later than 14 days after we have received your package.

To address the package, please use the sticker provided.
